

The translation of the European Space of Education in a Space of Commensuration

```
graph TD; A[The translation of the European Space of Education in a Space of Commensuration] -.- B[The rewriting of the legal basis of the cooperation in education and training (the passage from the Treaty of Rome to the Treaty of Maastricht)]; A -.- C[The inscriptions of the workings of the education systems in standards and common metrics.]; A -.- D[The consolidation of organizational conditions for the constitutions and the support of the collaboration in education and training at the level of the Commission (the making of a DG in Education)]; A -.- E[The development of transnational networks of collaboration activated by the Communitarian programs (Erasmus, Tempus, Socrates, etc.)]; A -.- F[The circulation of the discourses of knowledge society and of the lifelong learning through authoritative texts]; A -.- G[The implementation of the open method of coordination during the Lisbon Strategy];
```

The rewriting of the legal basis of the cooperation in education and training (the passage from the Treaty of Rome to the Treaty of Maastricht)

The inscriptions of the workings of the education systems in standards and common metrics.

The consolidation of organizational conditions for the constitutions and the support of the collaboration in education and training at the level of the Commission (the making of a DG in Education)

The development of transnational networks of collaboration activated by the Communitarian programs (Erasmus, Tempus, Socrates, etc.)

The circulation of the discourses of knowledge society and of the lifelong learning through authoritative texts

The implementation of the open method of coordination during the Lisbon Strategy